

The Governor's Summer Reading Challenge

Be a Summer Reader and read at least 15 hours this summer –
Whatever, however and wherever you want!

Take Your Reading to New Heights this Summer

“If you’re a good reader, you can do anything. I want you to realize your dreams.
Take my Summer Reading Challenge and dive into a good book this summer!”

Governor Gary Locke

How to Be a Summer Reader

Read 15 hours (or more!) this summer and let the Governor know! Report back by Labor Day (Sept. 1). Here's how it works:

- Tell Governor Locke what you read this summer. Report your summer reading online at www.governor.wa.gov/summerreadingchallenge
- Or write to the Governor at the address provided.
- Participate in the Summer Reading Challenge through your local library or school's summer reading program, the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Club, or just on your own.

Great Rewards!

Receive a certificate signed by the Governor!
